

Workbook exercises:

1. Fill in the gaps with the correct word (clues are given in the brackets):

- A. Harry will _____ (verb, meaning: making) a will tomorrow in which he will _____ (verb, meaning: leave) his money and property to his three _____ (adjective, meaning, financially not independent) children.
- B. The two _____ (noun, meaning: people to whom estate was left) are _____ (verb, meaning: challenging) the contents of the will in which they were completely _____ (verb, meaning, not to be left any part of the estate) on the grounds that their mother lacked the _____ (noun, meaning: not to be of sound mind).
- C. She died _____ (noun, meaning: without a will) and therefore the Court _____ (verb, meaning: formally assigned) an _____ (noun, meaning: a person who will be in charge) to handle her estate.

2. Watch the following video and answer the questions below:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9govtN8zdRA&index=2&list=PLtflNDh9aY3d2GIVst3OJ6FLjvi2PM88Z>

- 1) What do you normally prepare a Will from?
- 2) What verb do you use to indicate that you want to change an older version of your Will?
- 3) What else can you deal with in your will, in addition to disposition of your assets?
- 4) Who is the only heir (synonym for beneficiary) under the will?
- 5) Under what circumstances will he inherit his mother's holdings (synonym for assets or estate)?

- 6) What are the requirements for a will to be valid or legally binding?

- 7) What is the old-fashioned British term for “having prepared your will”?

- 8) In this particular case, does the closeness of the relationship between the testator & the heir matter for the purposes of deciding who will be the beneficiary?